

Contents

Introduction	10
Sambar - Understanding their Evolution	14
General Behaviour - A Summary Of	34
Topographical Features of the Wonnangatta River Valley	46
The Wagon Wheel - Road Map of Sambar Movement	52
From Rim to Hub - A Stag's Journey	78
Scouting and Intelligence Gathering	90
First Find a Top Area	98
Zones of Silence	136
The Overlays	146
The Long Gully Deer - by Dick Power	170
The Text Book Stag - by Bob Shepherd & Peter Russell	180
When a Frost is Imminent	190
Another Text Book Hunt - by Clint Collings	220
When a Cold Front is About to Hit it's a Great Time to Hunt	224
When a Cold Front is About to Hit - by Michael Mann & Mark Brown	234
My Journey to Sambar - by Matt Sheffield	240
After the Cold Front Passed - by Andrew Winwood	260
Hunt Smart Success Stories	268
Mini-Hubs - Sambar Central	272
West Facing Gully Heads of the Wonnangatta.	284
In Warm to Hot Weather - Sambar's need for shade & water soars	290
Warm to Hot October Hunt - by Clint Collings	302

Contents

Sambar are Drought Adaptable	306
Funnels, Saddles, Streams & Fences	310
Pheromones - Heifers, Wallows & Preaching.	328
Fundamentals + Patience = Success - by Rod Hart	340
Home Range	344
Hunting Trophy Stags - Exploiting their Vulnerabilities.	360
Persistence Pays Off - by Steve Kruger	376
Taking the Shot	384
Skeletal Overlay	402
After the Shot - Treat Every Deer As Though Wounded.	404
High Plains Habitat	408
Between 1300 and 1500 metres - by Neale Blunden
The Subalpine
A Trail Cam Study - by Bruce Parnall	414
King of the Subalpine - by Mike Welch	420
Mt. Howitt - Monster Stag Central.	428
Backpacking	440
Antler Styles	444
The Final Setup	450
References	456
Index	458
Acknowledgements	464